Caryl McMains, VP of Business Development for ClearStar.net, Appointed to NAPBS Board of Directors

CUMMING, GA – May 4, 2009 – ClearStar.net, the leading technology provider for the employment and tenant screening industry, announced today that Caryl McMains was named to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Professional Background Screeners (NAPBS). McMains nomination by the NAPBS Board of Directors was ratified by the organization's membership at the 2009 Annual NAPBS Conference in St. Louis, Missouri.

McMains has been a member of NAPBS since 2003 and previously served on the Ethics (2004-2006) and Conference (2007-2009) Committees.

"As employment screening becomes an increasingly pervasive practice, NAPBS has an important responsibility to set standards for the industry," stated Caryl McMains. "I plan to use my experience as a technology provider to bring new perspective to the board and help it better respond to the unique demands of today's dynamic market."

A veteran of the tenant and employment screening industry, McMains has been Vice President of Business Development and Sales for ClearStar.net since 2004. During this time she has contributed not only to the profitability but also to the strategic direction of ClearStar.net's web-based background screening applications.

About NAPBS

Founded in 2003 as a non-profit trade association, NAPBS® serves to represent the interest of companies offering employment and background screening. NAPBS® offers an opportunity for qualified companies to participate in shaping the body of knowledge and regulations impacting our futures. NAPBS® gives the screening industry the ability to effectively demonstrate its competence, reliability and willingness to adopt standards. NAPBS® is the best means to associate those companies able and willing to conform to standards and to meet the highest expectations of our clients and law-makers.
