ClearStar.net Expands Reach of Sales Team with Addition of Todd Shoulberg

CUMMING (ATLANTA), GA – December 18, 2007 – ClearStar.net, a leading information provider for the employment and tenant screening industry, announced today the addition of Todd Shoulberg to their sales team. Formerly Vice President of Florida Drug Screening, Inc., a nationwide provider of drug and alcohol testing services, Shoulberg assumes the role of Senior Director of Sales.

In this newly created role, Shoulberg will be reporting to the Vice President of Sales and Business Development, Caryl McMains, and is responsible for domestic and international sales of the screening management services of ClearStar.net.

“Through collaborative efforts over the past five years, we’ve experienced first-hand Todd’s broad industry knowledge and exceptional problem-solving skills,” said Caryl McMains. “A true team player and customer service advocate, Todd is a great fit for the ClearStar.net culture and sets a strong course for the expansion and diversification of our sales team.”

The addition of this Palm Bay, Florida-based sales professional serves as a strong counterpoint to ClearStar.net’s west coast sales office based in Vancouver, Washington.

“ClearStar.net invests heavily in attracting and retaining the best talent in the industry. I am excited and proud to have someone of Todd’s caliber chose to join our team,” explained R.J. Vale, CEO of ClearStar.net. “Todd not only has a strong track record in the screening industry but is an accomplished and respected sales professional with steadfast integrity.”

Shoulberg brings valuable experience from his eight-year tenure with Florida Drug Screening, Inc., where he managed and oversaw the medical review office as well as the sales and marketing and customer service departments while helping to grow sales twenty fold in seven years.

Shoulberg has been a featured industry conference speaker for the Drug and Alcohol Testing Industry Association (DATIA), the Pre-Employment Screeners Conference, The National Guard and the National Association of Professional Background Screeners (NAPBS).

A graduate of the University of Central Florida, Shoulberg is an active member of the Drug & Alcohol Testing Industry Association (DATIA), has been certified as a Certified Professional Collector Trainer (CPCT) and has completed the DATIA Accreditation course for Administration of Drug & Alcohol Testing Programs.
